Status: updates provided by Bruce McIntyre – Director of Golf Operations
Refreshment Carts update

- After a very positive meeting downtown with legal and regulatory the information has been forwarded to the town manager.
- Dave Miller asked if it could take place this year.
- Refreshment carts could be in place after Memorial Day.

IT Update

- New website process has started with course trends. Should be a 5 to 6 week process and you can check them out at www.coursetrends.com

Hyannis Renovation Project

- Nothing new to add
- Put together request for 35k from free cash surplus to cover feasibility study and we will not know until late May if it is approved, then we can put it out to bid

Review of winter activities and planned spring activities at the courses

Operations presented by Merry Holway -

- In the process of filling Wayne's vacant position
- Updated the information guide and added new sample tee sheets
- Sent out yearly membership flyers
- All tee sheets have been made for 2013 and we have started taking bookings
- Painting indoors at Hyannis golf club
- New merchandise has been ordered and is coming in
- St. Patricks Day Scramble has been cancelled
- There will be a welcome spring tournament on April 11th
- Attended the golf show in Boston at the Cape Cod Chamber Booth
- Roman wanted me to mention there will be a PGA Little League starting this year at the courses and he will be elaborating about it next month
- Men's room is currently under renovation

Maintenance presented by Chris White-

- We welcome another season greens were mowed for the first time today
- Indoor painting completed at both shops
- There has been a large amount of tree work to do this year due to the Nor'Easter/blizzard
- Hyannis golf course lost over 20 trees OBF lost about 10 trees
- Received the two new greens mowers and they are fantastic
- The mechanic has been working hard to get the equipment ready for the season
- Attended seminars and completed first aid/ CPR training
- Starting to attack the moss on the greens and will get the irrigation going again soon

*Dave Miller asked if the geese deterrent efforts are helping with cutouts and swans.

-Bruce inputs that the best way to do it is to obtain a nuisance permit and eliminate the problem

*Richard Aliberti asked about the trees that came down, topic discussed
